Message from the President

A warm welcome is extended to YMCA and in particular to their president Richard Beamish for this interesting encounter, the result of which could have significant implications for both ends of the River House League table.

Since our last edition we have had a number of successes in Clontarf - congratulations to the following:-

Enda and the 2nd Team on winning the Senior II Cup.

Robert and the 5th Team on a great Cup run just losing out in the final.

Andrew and the Under 15's on winning the Leinster U.15 Cup.

Richie and the Under 11's on winning the Mini-Blitz.

Stella and the Ladies 2nds on retaining the Junior Cup.

Thanks to all the supporters as well.

As this is the final publication of the season, some thank yous:-

Jill and her team for caring for us all throughout the year.

Joe and Paddy for the Labour of Love with the flowers.

Podge for his support to Karl on the ground.

Jim for the running of the Bar.

Brian for organising all the schoolboy activities.

and all the Members on the Executive Committee who chipped in as required during the year.

Most importantly you the members.

Thanks for all your Support during the year.

Finally a sincere thank you to our Editor Derek for making the brochure happen.

Tom Prior, President

Rivals

Rangers v Celtic, The Poms v The Aussies, Spurs v Arsenal, – in this company perhaps Clontarf's rivalry with YMCA pales into insignificance. However, it is such rivalries which gives an edge to our sport and in the last decade or so, we are fortunate to have been involved in great contests details of which remain vivid in the memory.

YM have been a good side for many years, however, they will accept that the arrival of Australian, Tim Sullivan was the factor which galvanised them into the "team of the 80's". In Clontarf, we well remember Mr. Sullivan. 1986 and it is the Wiggins Teape semi-final in Castle Avenue. Clontarf have batted first and set a good total - you may remember that Enda pulled a hamstring in making 50, if you don't, no doubt he will remind you. The total appeared too great for YM and before long we had them 9 down. Enter Ian Keertland to join Sullivan. What followed was an extraordinary exhibition of do or die batting. Sullivan launched a series of huge sixes and eventually just 2 runs were required from the last ball. Fortunately, for us, Jerry Kirwan who bowled the last over managed to extract some swing and we were victory by 1 run. This writer's memory is of Peter Prendergast attempting to smoke a cigarette after the game but being unable to do so because of his shaking hands – such was the tension of the day.

In those days, YM seemed to always win the league and the cup while we won the Wiggins Teape. The following year, we had the chance to upset this arrangement where we hosted the cup final and played today's visitors. We were confident, we felt we were a good side with a mix of young players and old, whose experience would count on such an occasion. What resulted was a performance which haunted us for many years and was only, truly, exercised in the Phoenix Park in 1992. YM batted first and scored a total in excess of 300 (in those days an enormous total). Yet we had not bowled badly. Before lunch nothing had gone our way. Edges went for 4, catches didn't go to hand. After lunch, Alan Lewis took over. Worse was to follow when we were bowled out for 72, largely by Johnathan Garth. At least the night in the bar was memorable for we needed something to forget the cricket.

An opportunity to get our own back came in 1990, again in the cup final, this time in Rathmines. Again YM batted first and again they posted over 300. That man Lewis led the way with a '100'. It appeared, for a long time, that we could reach the target, however, Lewis stepped in once more, with 6 wickets to destroy our hopes.

Would this pattern ever change? Finally, it did in 1992 in the Phoenix Park. This time, we won the toss and it was our turn to bat first. Yet even at the half way stage, after we had totalled 338 (then a record), we could not be confident that we had enough. After all, YM had, Lewis, Dunlop, Garth, Nulty and others capable of big scores. In the end, it was enough, despite a "100" from Angus Dunlop and the ghosts of '87 could be finally laid to rest.

There have been other games, of course, those mentioned were merely the high profile games. Earlier this season, after we won in Claremount Road, Charlie Craig was heard to say "it's many a Bank Holiday Monday we have snook out of here when they've done the same to us".

It is true – however, you can be sure that there will be as many epic games to follow in the years to come, perhaps even today.

Club News

Three Cup Finals in the past 6 weeks have been played, with good and bad news. To begin with the bad news. The 1st team lost the Alan Murray Final to Merrion in a game which we failed to perform to anything like our potential. Batting first, we reached a total of 114 for 5 in our 20 overs and this was thanks to gutsy performances from Ronan O'Reilly and Paul Ryan. However, this was never enough against a pumped up Merrion side who passed the target in a mere 17 overs. Our side was captained by Dave McGeehan – this is only mentioned because Dave has continuously pestered the editor to get his name in the programme. PS Ask him about his 4 ball 1st baller in the final.

There was better news from Rathmines, when the second team won the Senior 2 Cup for the 7th time. Batting first, we could only manage 137 for 7 in our 60 overs, due to some very tight Hills bowling. Daniel Gaughan was the highest scorer with 53 not out and the vital partnership was 46 for the eighth wicket with Karl McDermott. Daniel was again in the action when we took the field when taking 2 wickets for 15 in 8 overs before his back began to cause him problems. The Hills were never allowed into the game as Michael Ryan and Karl McDermott both took 3 wickets. Daniel deservedly won Man of the Match for his performance however it is worth recording Michael Ryan's bowling figures for the entire campaign – 60 overs bowled, 8 wickets for 85 runs. Quite a feat.

Then it was the turn of the Under 15's in the final of the Yates-Hale Cup (sponsored by G.L. Dexter Ltd). In a terrific game, we came out winners by 7 wickets over our arch rivals, Old Belvedere. Captain, Andy Cullen won the toss and elected to bowl. The game had to be played on the mat in Castle Avenue due to persistent rain however, before long we had taken a couple of wickets. This brought Brian O'Riordan (son of Alec) to the wicket and he played very well for his 75 (retired). Pick of the home bowlers was Andy Cullen with 3 for 20. If Old Belvedere's total of 141 seemed formidable, Brian Devine set about the chase in a style that could only be described as Sri Lankan. Sixes and fours abounded in an astonishing innings. While he was out trying to repeat the trick, he had contributed 47 out of an opening partnership of 56. Stephen Feeling, the other opener and Ronan McGeehan consolidated and set up a winning position before both were out. Stephen fell for 45 when a fifty would have been due reward for his excellent innings. It was left to Captain Cullen to see us to the winning fast and for his all round efforts he was named Man of the Match. However, in his acceptance speech, this was very much a team effort.

INDIVIDUAL MANAGED PENSION FUNDS FIVE YEAR PERFORMANCE %

Source: Micropal. All figures and copy above and below relate to individual pension mixed and aggressively managed sectors. Returns based on offer/offer performance from 1/1/91 - 1/1/96 and do not relate to premiums paid into a policy. Unit values may be expected to fall as well as rise. Past performance is not always an indication of future returns.

If you're choosing a pension, there's just one thing to remember. All pensions are not the same. Because the better your pension fund performs, the more comfortable your retirement will be.

At Eagle Star, we try very hard to get the best returns possible for our pensions customers.

And, to date, our endeavours have been paying off - handsomely. Out of all the unit-linked individual managed pension funds available, the three best performers for the last 5 years are all Eagle Star funds. What's more, Eagle Star's third best performing fund beat the best of the rest by 70 percentage points.

All of which should make choosing a pension fund that little bit easier. After all, where your future is concerned, why settle for fourth or fifth best?

PAST TIMES

"It was different in the old days". Well, judging by the following Irish Times report of 27th August 1923, things have, indeed, changed - at least the weather has remained a constant.

CLONTARF v PHOENIX

This Senior League match at Castle Avenue on Saturday was seriously interfered with by the morning deluge of rain and it was close on 4 p.m. before a start was effected on a sodden pitch. Phoenix were three men short, but, borrowing three juniors from the home club, agreed to carry on. Batting first, in bad light, Clontarf started well, their first pair, E.C. Boylan and J. Aston, putting up, slowly, but steadily, 27 for the first wicket when Boylan was bowled for 16. Then Whelan, H. Aston, Tyndal and Ledwidge were disposed of cheaply, and half the home side were out for 47. Aston put up a sound defence and when, after several bowling changes had been tried, Aston and Panton put on 27 runs for the sixth wicket before Aston was bowled by Buttanshaw for a most patient and invaluable 38, in which there were three 4's and two 3's, he being at the wicket for an hour and ten minutes. Panton was smartly thrown out by Lloyd when 16, but Montgomery (not out 17) and Seymour (not out 16) took the total to 125 for 7 wickets when Clontarf declared. Allen (3 for 40) and Dunlop (2 for 30) were the most successful of the Phoenix bowlers.

The Phoenix innings opened badly and they lost Sugden, Crawford and Buttanshaw with only 6 runs score, Ledwidge at this stage having 3 wickets for 3 runs. Wallis made a bit of a stand and his 11 was the only double. Wickets fell with monotonous regularity and 6 were down for 30, while the whole side were dismissed for 42, leaving Clontarf easy winners by 83 runs. This was their second victory over Phoenix this season and Ledwidge had the splendid analysis of 7 wickets for 15 runs while J. Aston took 3 for 20.

Our Supporters - An Appreciation

Clontarf supporters are famous for arriving en masse – to away games – often outnumbering local support – so no season would be complete without a world of thanks to all those valiant souls who have braved the often less than glorious summer weather to cheer on all the Clontarf teams. Once again this year they've travelled far and wide, with deckchairs, blankets and picnics, to shout encouragement from the boundary. I'm not sure that supporters realise the valuable role they play – especially in tight situations. One very young member of the 1st XI (who has had a meteoric rise through the ranks) confessed to being amazed and thrilled by the volume of sheer goodwill he has encountered. He couldn't believe the encouragement that was coming at him from all sides and admitted that the support makes you want to be the best you can possibly be.

There are many different types of cricket supporter. In one corner of the ground you'll find the "last of the summer wine" – the stalwarts with their deckchairs and sun hats who quietly absorb the game and spend the right in the bar discussing the finer points! Further along the boundary will be "the lads", with their coolboxes and shades, who offer more vocal support during the game and then retire to the bar to forget all about it! Somewhere rear the scoreboard you'll find "the Babes" complete with designer picnic and enough alcohol to ensure that even the coldest weather won't deter them. Their laps of the pitch are legendary – wherever they set off, opposition wickets are guaranteed to tumble. Dotted around the ground are the various family groups with buggies and suncream keeping a watchful eye on future Clontarf players with miniature bats and demon bowling actions! Wandering around the ground are the more tense supporters – usually parents of those on the field – who try hard to look nonchalant as they mentally play every ball their offspring faces.

Then of course there are the club workers who have their enjoyment of the game punctuated by bouts of frantic activity. Included in this group are the tea ladies – God bless 'em all! They fly around the tearoom at a rate of knots, making sandwiches and setting tables, so they can get outside to watch some of the game before returning to the thankless task of all that washing up. The working supporters also include our wonderful gardeners – Paddy balancing precariously on his stepladder tending his fabulous baskets while watching the game, and Joe, immaculate as ever in his Clontarf sunhat, busily dead-heading the flowers along the boundary. Joe gets a special mention, not only for his flowers (of which he is deservedly proud), but also for the fact that he knows the fixture book inside out and turns up at so many games. Of course the king of supporters this year is the President, Tom Prior, who has probably seen more cricket grounds this year than some of us see in a lifetime – well done Tom, you do us proud!

Finally, on a personal note, a big thank you to all those people who travelled to the ladies 2nd XI cup final – it was the volume of support that helped us to victory in a very tense game.

So, if you are one of the supporters who has cheered on our teams this year, give yourself a pat on the back for a job well done, and from all the players – THANK YOU!

Ode to Clontarf '96

The Cricket season is drawing to a close,
What happened on the sly nobody knows,
Get yourself a cuppa and a bikkie,
Or even a brandy, just a quickie,
I'll tell ya what I know, it's all third party,
A certain Turd has got herself a real smarty,
"Try on this ring there, it's for my mammie",
And then gave it to her, oh sooooo jammie,
After just one week, I'd begin to worry,
A "certain" finger on the left hand, he's in a hurry,
Speaking of which, "Babe" has disappeared,
Jet-setting off to wales, to meet Mr. R. (Majorca) Gere,
The Babes have new gear, t-shirts I mean,
Look out on Sat., provided no rain is seen,
We're meeting Y.M. auld Sheron & Lewi,
I wonder now will they feed poor Aubrey,
What about Stella R. asleep in the 'jon',
Bommer reckons "Caro's" a suitable 'one',
He's educated, sound, a fine bit of stuff,
He's a car, and a laugh, and a superb strut!!!!
"Horsey" O'Brien was strutting her 'Hooves',
A visit to 'Mudees' bar with lots of grooves,
After the hoci, Fiona D. was all flustered,
The till was skew-ways, she had it all mustered,
Cuddle Mi-stro I (K. McD) was working on Caroline,
Him, being a member of Take That and along that line,
Then Lisa took a running jump
Landed on Mucker, creating a thump,
I bet it was those Tequilas, that she had floored,
To watch her in action, one wouldn't be bored,
Another underage "Alco" is aul Dee Donnelly,
Crying for 4 hrs, clutching Cleo's knee,
Into the wardrobe for a quick sleep, that shut her up,
"Your so sexy & special Mickey F" - a poor chat up,
So Mickey looked elsewhere for a snog,
Got a real Princess, that was once a frog,
Ever need a lift, or even a TAXI???
Ask Catherine for details, its quite handy,
Look out for Flash's new thing,
It's a designer - Type of scratch-ing,
The nose, the 'poother', it's really Calvin Klein,
A bar of Fields of Athenry, Podger's doing fine,
Butzy & a 'McGeehan' are organising a game,
"My best against yours", all full of fame,
Though yet to be decided, the date, venue & time to start,
To those I offended, it wasn't my intention, If you had of behaved If you had of behaved you
Wouldn't have been mentioned !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
