Conqueror Cup Final 1997

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 1997 Conqueror Cup Final.

My sincere thanks to Wiggins Teape and in particular Arthur Vincent, for the continuing of the generous sponsorship, support and interest. My thanks also to Clontarf for allowing the Union to utilise their club brochure for today's match. It is unusual for the same pairing to contest successive finals. Both Pembroke and The Hills are deserving of this honour, based on their performances during the season.

It is very refreshing to see both teams flourish with youthful but, obviously, very effective captains in Peter Davy and Declan Moore, both of whom have represented Ireland in recent seasons.

The Hills success story continues and their refreshing enthusiasm and commitment to development of youth is a great example to all clubs.

The new regime in Pembroke, with that "youngster" Ray Moulton at the helm, will have a point to prove from last year when I am sure they would agree, they did not do themselves justice on the day.

The ongoing success of this great club also continues and their confidence will be high following their success in the Lewis Traub League.

All in all the game offers the prospect of a very competitive and exciting day's cricket.

My thanks, once again, to our very supportive media representatives, Philip Boylan, Karl Johnston Emmet Riordan, Niall Morrissey, Gerry Siggins and Philip Green. Their interest and help in the very important area of publicising the game is greatly appreciated.

The master of ceremonies for the day is, once again, John Dawson, who manages the various constituent parts of Cup Final arrangements the same way he carries out his duties as Honorary Secretary of the L.C.U. - with clockwork precision and efficiency.

In expressing the hope that the weather will be kind and we will have a fine game of cricket, I would repeat my primary wish, as last year, which is that we will all ensure that the great and unique spirit and traditions of this wonderful game of cricket are fully respected, both on and off the pitch.

In conclusion, I would like to thank our hosts for today's final, Clontarf C. C., for allowing us to avail, yet again, of their superb facilities and the committee ladies and all who help to make these occasions in Clontarf such an enjoyable experience.

Derek Brennan

THE HILLS C.C. - PLAYER PROFILES

DECLAN MOORE: Captain, a right handed batsman and opening quick bowler. He is a fine ambassador for the club with caps at both International and Interprovincial levels. Finding his role as captain was not made easy by the performance of last seasons side but he stuck to his task well and shows the sign of true leadership. His hobbies are many but I would put horse racing, computers and golf at the top of the list.

1997 batting average 42.33 bowling average 37

BARRY ARCHER: Vice-Captain, a left handed batsman and left hand spin bowler. He is a cautious but hard hitting batter. He has played many very good innings this season. He is a fine batter to watch when in full swing. A lot will be owed from him on the day and I feel he won't let us down.

1997 batting average 22.00 bowling average 17.80

JOHN ARCHER: A right handed batsman who can adapt at any number and has the ability to make rather than score runs. Still one of the fastest close-in fielders in the game. A very good reader of the game and an outstanding captain in his own right and will be very good support to Declan on the day. This would be Johnny's last season at the top and my bet is that he will not go out like a lamb.

1997 batting average 9.25

NOEL HARPER: A right handed batsman and right arm bowler with the knack of getting the ball to lift at batsmen no matter how good the wicket. He has played many fine innings in the past when his team was in trouble and is quite capable of making a good 30 at the end of an innings.

1997 batting average 4.67 bowling average 19.69

MICK DWYER: A very fine wicket keeper and left handed batsman. Mick rarely gets a chance to show his batting skills and hears hoping he does not have to show it in this match. Nevertheless he has always been at the top where wicket keeping is concerned.

1997 batting average 1

JOHN ANDREWS: Right hand batsman and swing bowler. He is a big hitter of the ball but can bite his tongue and play a cautious innings. This fellow will just not lie down and die, somehow he finds a little magic to keep going and bring along whoever is with him.

1997 batting average 11.00

MARK CLINTON: Right hand batsman and off-spin bowler. He has had his hour of glory in this competition in 1898 when he captained the winning side. A fast run getter and has the ability to get runs all round the ground and very much the in form batsman this season. With the ball he has tied down many sides this season and always gives you the feeling he will get a wicket with the next ball. He is already a man-of-the-match winner this season and I feel he could do it again in the final.

1997 batting average 32.83 bowling average 11.08

MATT DWYER: Superb allrounder; Useful middle order left handed batsman and outstanding left arm off-spin bowler. Is a wizard of the tactics of the game and put this very much to use last season when he captained this side to victory. He will be one to give valuable advice if required on the day.

1997 batting average 18.00 bowling average 11.19

PAUL MOONEY: Right handed opening batsman and medium to quick bowler. Came to the club in 1995 from North County where he had already made his mark as an opening bat. A very much improved bat this season he will be a hard wicket to get early.

1997 batting average 21.50 bowling average 15.63

JOSEPH CLINTON: Left handed batsman and right hand quick bowler. He has just captained the Ireland U-19's in Bermuda and helped see Ireland through to the World Cup. He seems more at home with the ball, but looks like that he has the ability with the bat and can hit the ball hard. A deep thinker of the game and one who gives his all in batting, bowling and fielding.

1997 batting average 16.00 bowling average 18.40

PATRICK BYRNE: Right handed batsman and medium fast bowler. He is one of the true straight bats of the game. He is the type of player that improves with each game and with one final under his belt I feel this will be his game.

1997 batting average 20.11 bowling average 16.00

STEPHEN ARCHER: Left handed batsman and right handed bowler. A player that plays the game hard as a result of giving it his all, whether batting, bowling or fielding. A hard hitter of the ball he can amass runs very quickly and is a very fine batter to watch when in full flight, and can bowl a mean ball.

1997 batting average 12.25 bowling average 18.17

BRENDAN MOORE: Right handed batsman and bowler. Has played seven times this season with the first team and has a score of 29 under his belt. Finds it hard to get a bowl on this talented bowling side.

1997 batting average 10.00

PATRICK HOARE: Right handed batsman. He is a fine bat and who has a highest score of 21 n.o. this season. A very fine outfield catcher and this might come in handy on the big park at Castle Avenue.

1997 batting average 14.25

Conqueror Cup Final 1997

PEMBROKE C.C. - PLAYER PROFILES

PETER DAVY 'Floppy': Will be delighted with his contribution as Captain for the first time of Pembroke. A strong minded individual with his sights clearly on playing for his country again. Watch out for some big shots if 'Bambi' gets going. Good luck skipper.

TED WILLIAMSON 'Buckets': Has had a great season and won Pembroke a number of games. Some say the most talented player with fantastic timing. Again an aggressive left handed batsman who will be looking for a big score to help Pembroke take the cup home.

TREVOR DAGG 'Daggers': Is currently enjoying his number three role with some useful innings. He is just back from a relaxing holiday in the WI where he supposedly showed some of the locals the 'hook shot'! Aggressive batsman always hoping to smash it.

IAN SOLOMAN 'Solly': Has thoroughly enjoyed his first season in Ireland from S.A. and even managed a bit of cricket. Another of Pembroke's big hitters will no doubt enjoy the festivities of cup final day! Interesting to see what The Hills make of his bowling.

BRIAN O'ROURKE 'Scammer': One of the senior members of the squad 'Scam Box' is hoping to reach 5000 runs today! Has enjoyed another good year with the bat and ball pushing hard for the number three spot. No doubt will be enjoying the cider after todays game.

JOHN DAVY 'Zulu Warrior': Everyone was delighted to see 'JD' pick up his first Irish senior cap in the recent triple crown. John has developed into an excellent all rounder and will be looking to play a big part in winning the cup today for Pembroke.

DIXON BUTLER 'Dicko': Finally established himself on the first team after numerous high scores for the seconds. Dixon is an excellent middle order batsman and close fielder with match winning run outs to his name! Don't take a single to this 'cat like' creature.

RICHARD HASTIE 'Whizz': A legend within the club. Whizz can win games with the bat or ball. Like 'Daggers' has recently been resting for today and will be looking for a big match performance to please his large group of followers. Make sure you brush your hair!

COLIN KAVANAGH 'Charlie': Now a family man with commitments how does Charlie do it? Never afraid of a road run or extra fielding behind the stump. Has always delivered the highest standard of keeping for Pembroke and will be hungry for another cup medal.

BILL WHALEY 'Sprög': Has had a brilliant start to the season for the firsts with a number of contributions in the field and with the ball. Probably caught one of the best catches in Leinster ever last week against Railway and will be looking to get a few wickets today.

RONAN SMITH 'Show Time': Well with a Father like Pat no wonder Ronan gets such good advice! A consistent medium pacer has stormed onto the first to take key wickets game after game. Hands like shovels you wouldn't want to hit anything in the air to him either!

ALL THE PLAYERS OF PEMBROKE WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO WISH THE HILLS C.C., CLONTARF C.C. AND SUPPORTERS A GREAT DAY OUT WITH SOME MEMORABLE CRICKET PLAYED.
