Welcome to Our Visitors from Mashonaland

It is with much pleasure that I welcome our Guests from Mashonaland to play a two day game against an Irish President's XI in Dublin. The Irish team toured their country in 1986 and came home lavish in their praise of the hospitality they received and the Irish Cricket Union are now delighted to have the opportunity of returning that hospitality.

I hope that we are blessed with good weather, that we have an exciting game and that our Guests will have the opportunity of seeing at least parts of our historic City and surrounding areas.

Ian Lewis,
President
Irish Cricket Union.

It is not often that we welcome cricket visitors to our shores for the first time who have already extended hospitality to Irish cricketers. It is for this reason that the Leinster Cricket Union extends a Cead Mile Failte to our Mashonaland guests. The legendary hospitality shown to Irish cricketers in Mashonaland, indeed, makes it incumbent on us to do all we can to make their visit as enjoyable as possible.

Therefore, our sincerest wishes are for good weather, the best of cricket, and above all, that when they leave Ireland, they will take with them the best of memories of what we hope is but the first of many visits here by them, to enjoy cricket and the warmth of our hospitality.

Harry Hill,
President
Leinster Cricket Union.
